

September 26, 2021
Presenter, Rev. Joe Mohr
Service Leader, Melanie Jenney
Musician, Laura Black

Whoever you are, no matter how lonely, the world offers itself to your imagination
~Mary Oliver

Welcome—for coming together

Gathering Music            Melody and Norse Song by Robert Schumann
Prelude                      Larghetto in F by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart                      Laura Black

Welcome and Announcements

Opening Words                      All of Us Are Beautiful                      Thomas Rhodes
Dedication of Chalice              We are a People of Beauty                      Kimberlee Anne Tomczak Carlson

Hymn #44                              We Sing of Golden Mornings

Contemplation—looking for meanings

Meditation                              A Universe of Possibilities                      Jill Tarter
Moment of Silence

Offering—stewardship of our church

Call to Offering                              Arthur Foote II
Offering Music                              Prelude in C Minor by Henryk Pachulski                      Laura Black Hymn #21                                      For the Beauty of the Earth

Community—a time for sharing

Personal Joys and Sorrows
Musical Interlude.                      Song Without Words, Opus 10, No. 4
By Felix Mendelssohn                      Laura Black

Theme—our search for truth

Presentation                              Imagining Other                      Rev. Joe Mohr

Closing—for continuing and moving forward

Hymn No. 414                              As We Leave This Friendly Place
Closing Words                              The Magic of Imagination                      Susan L. Van Dreser
Postlude                                      Theme by Franz Schubert                      Laura Black
Extinguish Chalice

Limitations live only in our minds. But if we use our imaginations, our possibilities become limitless. ~ Jamie Paolinetti