

January 15, 2023
Presenter Rev. Joe Mohr
Service Leader Charles Merrifield
Musician Laura Black

You must find your own quiet center of life, and write from that to the world.

—Sarah Orne Jewett

Welcome—for coming together

Gathering Music                      Meditation by Robert Schumann                      Laura Black

Calling Bell

Prelude                      Melody and Norse Song by Robert Schumann                      Laura Black

Welcome and Announcements

Opening Reading                      The Heart of our Faith                      Monica Jacobson-Tennessee

Dedication of Chalice                      In touch with those unique lights                      Rev. Jane Johnson Lewis

Hymn #16                      Tis a gift to be simple

Contemplation—looking for meanings

Meditation                      Let the Center Hold                      Rev. Joe Cherry

Moment of Silence

Offering—stewardship of our church

Call to Offering

Offering Music                      Meditation from Thais by Jules Massenet on Violin                      Laura Black

Hymn #146                      Come, Sing a Song with Me

Community—a time for sharing

Personal Joys and Sorrows

Musical Interlude                      Song Without Words by Felix Mendelssohn                      Laura Black

Theme—our search for truth

Presentation                      To Thine Own Self be True                      Rev. Joe Mohr

Closing—for continuing and moving forward

Hymn #318                      We Would Be One

Closing Words                      Sharing What We've Found                      Rev. Scott Taylor.

Extinguish Chalice

Postlude                      Rondo by James Hook                      Laura Black